MINING AND TECHNOLOGICAL EXHIBITION FAIR EXTEMIN

EXHIBITORS' REGULATIONS

The Mining and Technological Exhibition Fair EXTEMIN (hereinafter, "EXTEMIN"), specialized fair of the mining sector, is the technological exhibition that takes place within PERUMIN - 33 Mining Convention (hereinafter the "Event"), organized by the Peruvian Institute of Mining Engineers, hereinafter called THE IIMP. This Exhibitors' Regulations is a comprehensive part of the Agreement for Assignment for Use signed by THE IIMP and by whom will exhibit its goods or products at EXTEMIN or through the International Operator, hereinafter, either case, called THE EXHIBITOR. THE EXHIBITOR shall follow these regulations for the normal development of his/her participation, and it is mandatory to comply with these regulations entirely. The contractual relationship created between THE EXHIBITOR and THE IIMP for the display of goods or products and for the assignment of use of modules includes the provisions of this Regulation of Exhibitors and in the Agreement for Assignment for Use subscribed to this effect, and any other provision issued by THE IIMP in his capacity as organizer of the event. It is also worth to mention that THE EXHIBITOR is obliged to return to one (01) copy of the Agreement for Assignment for Use duly signed.

1. IIMP. The term Institute or THE IIMP used herein refers to the Peruvian Institute of Mining Engineers, its offices or employees that represent it in the organization of EXTEMIN and the Event.

2. PLACE AND DATE Arequipa, FROM September 18 to 22, 2017, at the Universidad de San Agustín (San Agustín Public University) located at Calle Paucarpata S/N, Fundo Cercado, District of Cercado, Province and Department of Arequipa.

3. EXHIBITION TIMES

- Monday 18 from 12:00 to 18:00
- Tuesday 19 from 09:00 to 18:00
- Wednesday 20 from 09:00 to 18:00
- Thursday 21 from 09:00 to 18:00
- Friday 22 from 09:00 to 13:00

4. HEAD OF EXTEMIN He represents THE IIMP in all cases before THE EXHIBITOR and is the one in charge of supervising the compliance of EXTEMIN provisions.

5. THE EXHIBITOR This term refers to any Peruvian or foreign individual, or any legal entity incorporated in Peru or abroad, that has entered into an Agreement for Assignment for Use with THE IIMP, in order to hold a space of one (01) or more modules (hereinafter "Modules") at EXTEMIN.

An International Operator will be understood as the Chambers of Commerce, Embassies, Consulates or any international entity acting as a representative of their country of origin before EXTEMIN and that is willing to participate of EXTEMIN, either by themselves or gathering companies, associations, unions or similar related to mining in their country of origin to participate as exhibitors at EXTEMIN (hereinafter, "Indirect Exhibitors").

THE EXHIBITOR, as an International Operator, will be the sole responsible for his/her liabilities, under any title, with the Indirect Exhibitors. In such a way that there will not be a relationship binding THE IIMP to the Indirect Exhibitors by virtue of the obligations or rights that THE EXHIBITORS and the Indirect Exhibitors maintain. In this case, THE EXHIBITOR commits and liberates THE IIMP from any claim, contingency, sanction or others for the relationship that may be created between THE EXHIBITOR and Indirect Exhibitors. Leaving open the possibility of THE IIMP to recover from THE EXHIBITOR a payment in case he/she gets involved in any of the above-mentioned events.

On the other hand, THE EXHIBITOR, as International Operator will be jointly liable in case of contingencies, non-compliance, damages and other events that may occur regarding the behavior of the Indirect Exhibitors at EXTEMIN and the Event, since the time of the communication informing about the participation of the Indirect Exhibitor until the end of it, they shall assume the liabilities as if they were THE EXHIBITOR.

6. EXHIBITORS' ADMISSION The IIMP reserves the right of accepting the participation of any company, product or service in EXTEMIN, based on the Event's policy. For this, any of the interested may visit the offices of THE IIMP to receive information and to be aware of all the conditions and guidelines stated herein in order to assess their admission to the event.

In case an interested party would like to become an exhibitor of the Event, and after being assessed by THE IIMP, he or she shall sign an Agreement for Assignment for Use (hereinafter, the "Agreement"), that will generate a first invoice corresponding to the first installment to be paid for the Module. As soon as THE EXHIBITOR received the invoice, he or she shall have up to seven (07) business days to pay it. After such term, in case of non-compliance, THE EXHIBITOR's registration shall be invalid and he or she will be losing all participation right, together with any amount of money delivered as partial or total payment for the Modules.

THE EXHIBITOR that intends to participate by showing heavy or big equipment at their modules, such as tractors, forklifts, trucks, etc., shall coordinate with THE IIMP, and respect the specific times stated for that, in order to ease the entrance to the fair area of all their equipment, prior to your registration as an exhibitor at the Event.

7. MODULES CHARACTERISTICS. EXTEMIN modules have different categories, outside and inside the fair area (hereinafter, "Module"). A Module is the measure unit that is determined for the space assignment. A Module is the exhibition area hired by THE EXHIBITOR, comprising one (01) or more Modules. For a better explanation, please refer to the Exhibit regarding the Modules characteristic, per category.
